Humberto Poblete-Bustamante

B. 1966 · USA

Humberto Poblete-Bustamante, lives and works in Paris, France.

Poblete-Bustamante uses thick layers of oil paint to create abstract compositions. The vibrant colours and simplified forms merge to create a harmonious and textural geography on the canvas.

Humberto Poblete-Bustamante, 'We Don't Need Another Hero', PIERMARQ*, Sydney, Australia, August 2023

While socio-political movement underpins the artist's creative process, the work is formalist in its layering of materials as an autobiographical archive of the experience of painting and the lightness of fluid movements in contrast with the density of the heavy, impasto application.

Humberto Poblete-Bustamante has exhibited internationally and his work belongs to museums and public collections in France and Spain.
